Brief:	Attached as an appendix to this report is a presentation which sets out the rationale for and progress of setting up a service for women with multiple needs, to be known as Ealing Women's Wellness Zone.
Recommendations:	The Panel is asked to consider and comment on the proposals for Ealing Women's Wellness Zone.

1. Ealing Women's Wellness Zone

Clare Brighton, Drug and Alcohol Programme Manager, will be providing a presentation for the Panel on the rationale for and progress of setting up a service for women with multiple needs, including the service outline, the commissioned service outcomes, and future ambition. The service is to be known as Ealing Women's Wellness Zone.

Women with multiple needs make up a substantial number of the Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conference (MARAC) caseload: the so-called 'toxic trio' of mental health, substance misuse and domestic abuse.

The presentation slides are attached as Appendix 1.

3. Legal Implications

There are none arising directly from this presentation.

4. Financial Implications

There are none arising directly from this presentation.

5. Other Implications
